If you don't dare to dream...

...How can you make a dream come true?

- - Leap of Faith - -

Mary came to Maui for an extended vacation. What she discovered was an entire new way of life. Like many others traveling to Maui, Mary got off the plane with two suitcases and a future full of hopes and dreams. The only thing different about Mary is that she never left paradise. Mary knew she would stay but what she did not know was for how long. It's been years since that flight in 2001 and she has not looked back. As one of South Maui's premier Real Estate Consultants, Mary has the knowledge, insight, and experience to make your next move a complete success.

- - Here to Help Make Dreams Come True - -

Mary is not just living her dream here on Maui; she is helping others to do the same. As a real estate consultant specializing in South Maui Properties Mary uses her own experience together with her knowledge and understanding of the Maui lifestyle to find you the right house, condominium, or investment property. Mary will listen to your needs and evaluate what will work best for you and your family. She believes a home is an extension of you and who you are. With Mary by your side helping you, it is guaranteed that the house will truly become your "dream home".

- - Dreaming of More - -

Some people ask Mary "What is a Real Estate Consultant? And how does it differ from a Realtor?" Her quick response, "A relationship that lasts!" Mary is a Realtor but the service she provides you with is "so much more". She works to become your Real Estate Consultant for Life! When Mary is not actively helping her clients reach for their dreams, of buying and selling here on Maui, she is often found doing what drew her to this career in the first place; beautifying houses. You see it is no coincidence that she is a Realtor. Mary's past experience was working in private residences as a "personal assistant to the home" making upgrades, choosing paint colors, designing spaces, decorating and much more. This philosophy of a friendly personalized service is Mary's approach to having a business worth having. Mary's passion for the Island of Maui is just as strong today as the day she first arrived. Let that passion work for you!

"Maui is a place you can truly be yourself"
